Upper Darby gets its

In March a committee, appointed by the Middle Atlantic States Association of Secondary Schools, evaluated Upper Darby Senior High School. Such committees examine Upper Darby once every ten years along with other high schools that wish accreditation. Areas covered by the committee's investigation consisted of Upper Darby's teachers, pupils, school size, physical facilities, teaching methods, school activities, public relations, and social facets.

In preparation for this decennial evaluation, Upper Darby Senior High examined itself. The faculty and the administration formed into committees which reviewed and revised the teaching methods and materials of Upper Darby's twelve educational departments.

We, of the 1963 Oak, also decided to evaluate our high school. To aid us in our examination, we secured the services of Mr. I. C. Clearly, a well-known educator. We began our investigation with common, though rarely pictured, scenes of Upper Darby's campus, of which Mr. Clearly readily approved. Following this introduction are what we consider to be the five main sections of school life. In these areas we present a complete picture of Mr. I. C. Clearly's evaluation and rating of "The Castle on the Hill."

Supervising the School System

They organized and directed

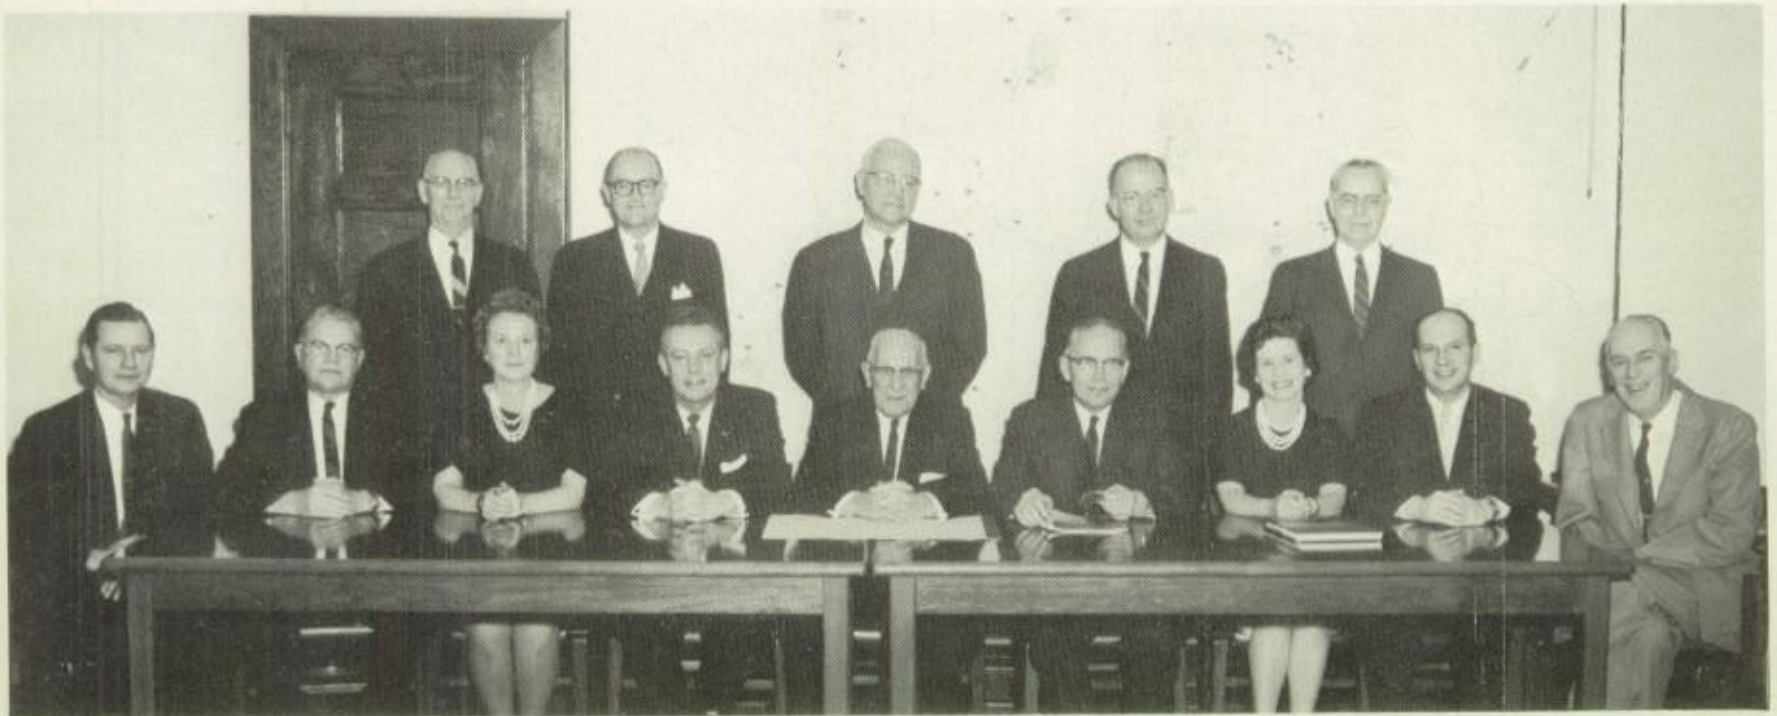

Mr. Tyson

To the Class of 1963:

You are privileged to live in the greatest era of recorded history and to share in the tremendous advances and improvements that result from our technological genius and our productive capacity. This will be an era in which nearly all workers, at all levels of employment, will need a broad liberal education supplemented by highly-developed technical skills. And the training that will be required will not be limited to those youthful days spent in high school and college, but will continue throughout life.

We who have helped to guide and stimulate you during those early years hope that you will choose pathways to further learning, leading to a life of enriched experience and satisfying services. May each of you contribute, in your own small way, in aiding people throughout the world to live together with mutual respect and lasting peace.

John H. Tyson, Superintendent

Managing the Administration

the school's self-evaluation.

To the Class of 1963:

Long have Upper Darby traditions of scholarship and athletic achievement been recognized in our school. Each class, as it comes and goes on the Hill, makes its own contribution. Following a class which earned four National Merit Scholarships, you are now sustaining that same high level by producing even more National Merit Finalists than did your predecessors. Athletic prizes have been won by Upper Darby teams from year to year, but it was your class which captured the Suburban A League Basketball Championship for the first time since 1938. I congratulate you!

Upper Darby High School is rightfully proud of its thousands of alumni. Now you are ready to join the main stream of that illustrious company. While you were students, your teachers trained you in enthusiastic, intelligent, and concerned citizenship. Those who have gone before you have already proved their mettle in community, state and nation. Today your challenge is even greater as we envisage ourselves citizens of the world.

You have been good members of our school community. As your principal, I know that you will accept the challenge to assume your responsibility as loyal and effective Upper Darby alumni in a world which will be only as good as you make it. To this high purpose I invite you to dedicate your most vigorous efforts. May success be yours!

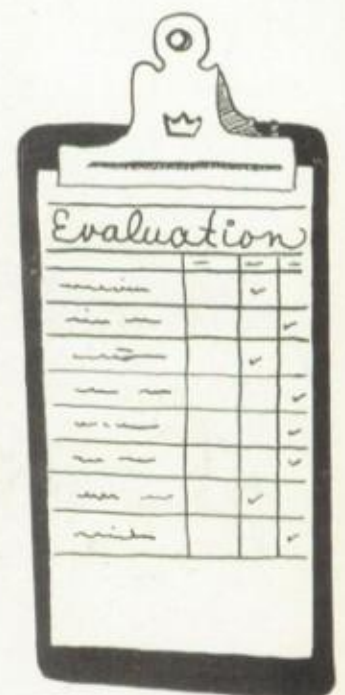

Sincerely yours,
J. E. Nancarrow, Principal

Aiding the Administration

They increased efficiency

MISS MISH, Mrs. Kreiger, Mr. McConnell, Mr. Todaro.

Standing: Mrs. Warwick, Mrs. McLaughlin. Sitting: Mrs. Thompson.

In the Registrar's office Mrs. Marie McLaughlin assists Mr. Leslie. Among other jobs she types college application forms, arranges interviews, and admits new students. Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, Dr. Nancarrow's secretary, is in charge of the production of the handbook and of the requisitioning of all supplies. Working in the attendance office, Mrs. Minacci sells trolley tickets and acts as general treasurer for all clubs.

In the same office as Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Lydia Warwick checks arriving school supplies and channels repair requisitions. During the summer she sends class rank notices to all students. Pictured above are the teachers who operate the attendance office. Their varied duties include: excusing absences and latenesses, checking on class cutting, and issuing early excusals.

Standing: Mrs. Grant, Mrs. McClennen. Sitting: Mrs. Clements.

Service with a smile is the motto of Upper Darby's secretaries. In the main office, besides assisting visitors and taking phone messages, Mrs. Myra Clements and Mrs. Anne McClennen type report cards, midyear schedule, and rosters. Mrs. Edith Grant is the secretary for the guidance counselors. She schedules all the appointments for roster changes, general counseling, and Drexel Test interviews.

Working Without Recognition

MISS YERKES and Mrs. Pusey.

Mrs. Pusey and Miss Yerkes are an indispensable part of our high school. These two capable nurses take care of all illnesses and sign all gym excusals. Along with doing other work for the Department of Health, they gave T.B. tests to all of the Seniors. Both Mrs. Pusey, who attended Frankford Nursing School, and Miss Yerkes, who attended Jefferson Nursing School and the University of Pennsylvania, are advisers to the First Aid and Social Service Club.

Mrs. Eshleman, the director of the psychology service, and Mrs. Vetre, her assistant, play a thankless, but important part in the functioning of our school. Working with all the schools in the district, they supervise individual testing, and home instruction. This year, besides dealing with unusual discipline problems, they helped establish a vocational training class. Along with these duties, they supervised the special education classes in the senior high, junior high, and elementary schools.

Pictured below are Miss Bassett and Mrs. Dietrich who efficiently manage the school library and generously assist students in finding their needed literature.

Upper Darby's maintenance staff worked diligently in the caring for the general appearance of our school. The 38-man staff had duties which included all general repairs, the care of the school grounds, and the daily cleaning of the building. Broken fluorescent lights and torn window shades were some of the many things the staff was called upon to repair. Also under their care was our 36-acre campus. This was kept in excellent condition during the spring and fall months because the men regularly mowed the lawn and cared for the shrubbery. During the winter months, the shoveling of snow from the sidewalks and driveways was one of the staff's main functions. Besides these varied seasonal duties, the staff also preformed the routine duties of refinishing desks, sweeping floors, and washing the blackboards.

STUDENT TEACHERS Mrs. Herber, Mr. Fredrick, Miss Lee, and Mr. Ratinoff pose in the attendance office.

An important part of developing good teaching skills is the practice one receives as a student teacher. Every year Upper Darby takes prospective teachers from nearby colleges and places them under the supervision of experienced teachers. Besides assuming regular classroom duties, student teachers work in the attendance office where they discover some of the extra assignments a teacher is expected to fulfill. They also become acquainted with the many different jobs involved in the administration of a school.

STUDENT TEACHERS spend part of their time working in the attendance office.

EFFICIENT CAFETERIA workers prepare lunches daily.

The serving and preparing of hundreds of lunches each day is smoothly accomplished by our cafeteria staff. The menus are carefully planned to be nutritionally sound and appealing. Each day basic hot and cold platters are offered along with various other dishes. Not only does the cafeteria staff prepare meals but they also care for our eating area. Tables are clear and the floor is clean as the lunch period begins. Returned dishes and trays are quickly cleared away by the kitchen staff and then washed and dried in huge dishwashers to insure cleanliness. The swift and efficient work of the cafeteria staff is greatly appreciated by the entire school.

Students in the college preparatory course have their choice of four possible areas of study: Academic, Foreign Language, Scientific, and Advanced. These courses of study provide a background for further work in schools of higher learning, leading eventually to a professional career. All college preparatory students are expected to have high scholastic ability and a genuine interest in learning. This year special advanced work was offered for exceptionally capable students in subjects, such as English, chemistry, algebra, biology, and European history.

STUDENTS OF Mr. Kashner's sixth period commercial class work diligently at learning the operation of typical office machines.

Upper Darby's Business Preparatory Curriculum has five main divisions. Those students wishing to become accountants, bankers, or bookkeepers study under the Accounting course. The Clerical course is offered to those students who seek positions as office assistants while students desiring work in retail sales departments study in the Salesmanship course. Future stenographers and secretaries engage in the Stenographic course. The Distributive Education course provides the experience for those students who want "on the job" training as well as a classroom education in selling and merchandising.

Students interested in a non-professional vocation choose the General Curriculum. It is especially designed for those who have not made definite future plans. This course requires only four major subjects each year and therefore allows the student to take a wide range of elective subjects. Such subjects include agriculture, dramatics, foods, home nursing, interior decoration, journalism, mechanical drawing, public speaking, and shop. In addition to these electives other fields of interest such as art, chorus, clothing, industrial opportunities, foreign languages, musical groups, problems of democracy, sociology and theory of music are also offered.

The Fine Arts courses are designed for those students who desire careers in creative fields. One of the six areas offered is agriculture which is for those who desire to become gardeners, stock raisers, and the like. A student who wishes to become a professional or commercial artist may emphasize art courses. Industrial Arts are for those who plan to enter employment in the manufacturing or construction industries directly upon graduation from high school. Music is designed to help those who want to concentrate on music as a vocation. Practical arts are offered for those who need skills for social and economic living, health education, business skills, or citizenship. All students in these courses may carry five to twelve hours of work directly related to these vocations.

Student Council, composed of a representative from each homeroom in the school and from selective school organizations, is the voice of the students. Meeting every Thursday morning in the library, they decide many important school issues. In addition to giving dances after home basketball games, Student Council ran the coke wagon at our football games, sponsored a clean-up campaign by putting receptacles in the corridors and on the smoking area, and offered a tutoring service to the student body. They also chose representatives to be sent to the Philadelphia Suburban Student Council Association meetings.

Miss E. Lucile Noble, Mr. Ralph Andersen, and Mrs. Edna MacNair, the faculty advisers to Student Council, offered their assistance whenever a problem arose. Council was under the able leadership of President Charles Tucker, who was assisted by Vice-President David Videon, Secretary Larry Matlack, Treasurer David Goff, and Sergeant-at-Arms Pauline Fedor. There are seven committees which do the Council's work. The Property Committee is responsible for Student Council's possessions, the Social Committee plans and supervises the basketball dances and other social events, and the Scholarship Committee promotes good scholarship. The Interschool Relations are handled by a committee of the same name while the Club Committee ratifies the constitutions of newly formed clubs. The primary purpose of the Service Committee is to aid the school. Publicizing meetings of the Student Council and advertising other school projects is the duty of the Publicity Committee.

Scholarship, character, and service to the school and community are prerequisites for membership in the Girls' Hi-Y. Under the supervision of the organization's new adviser, Miss Helen Mowry, the girls performed many valuable services to the school. In the beginning of the year, Hi-Y members acted as guides, helping new students find their way in the building, and sponsored Activities Day to introduce sophomore girls to Upper Darby's many organizations. They gave up their study halls to help Mrs. Clements in the main office by answering the phone and running errands. The girls sold programs at football games, ushered at school and community affairs, and served at the sports and publications banquets. In observance of the Christmas season, the Hi-Y sent Christmas cards to the Children's Hospital. In the spring, the girls, with the Boys' Hi-Y, presented the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, a favorite function on the school's social calendar. Leading the 1962-1963 Girls' Hi-Y were: Bonnie Heilig, president; Karen Parsons, vice-president; Judy Beissel, secretary; and Isabelle Manwiller, treasurer.

Under the direction of Carson Thompson, the Boys' Hi-Y performed many services to the school and community. The leaders of the organization were Stu Wellman, president; Nick Herman, vice president; Gary Tilles, secretary; Sandy Warren, treasurer.

Meeting every Tuesday morning, the Boys' Hi-Y organized their activities. They ushered at the Boosters' Banquet, the Upper Darby Night School, and the All School Show. The boys donated one hundred dollars to the YMCA and cleaned up the grounds of the Delaware County Hospital as community services. Another of their activities was an auction. The proceeds of which were given to the Delaware County Hospital.

All the members—sophomores, juniors, and seniors were instrumental in helping the group have a successful year.

Upi-Dah . . .

Workers strive for perfection

Upper Darby's oldest publication, the Upi-Dah, was under new management this year. In the capable hands of Mr. John D. Young, the literary magazine sprang forth with new life. The Upi-Dah is published bi-annually and is comprised of contributions by the senior high student body. Many stories, poems, and other literary efforts were read and discussed by the staff under the direction of Glennys Waldman, editor. The cover designs were drawn by the art editors, Betsy Bain and Rebecca Carraway, while the other members of the art staff illustrated the carefully selected, nameless manuscripts. The publication includes an interesting variety of illustrated short stories, editorials, essays, and poems.

The Publications Business Staff conducted all of the business transactions concerning the OAK, Upi-Dah, and Acorn. The members were under the guidance of Mr. Clayton K. Shenk, who has directed the staff for twenty-four years.

Sherry Levin, general business manager, headed the staff, took care of senior sittings and pictures, and assisted Mr. Shenk. Barbara Goodstein was the OAK business manager and took care of orders for the various publications. Receiving payments and distribution was also part of her job. The circulation managers, Jane Hayes and Cathy Fry, supervised the disbursements of the Acorns each Friday. They sent Acorns to advertisers, school board members, and former students. Sally Rahouser, the advertising manager, solicited advertisements and made the advertisement lay-outs. She also collected money and billed the advertisers.

The other members of the staff aided in the publications campaign, distribution of senior pictures, collection of money for the pictures, circulation of Upi-Dah's and Acorns.

TYPING STAFF

Publications typing staff is composed of girls chosen on the basis of typing speed and accuracy. By typing copy, they have helped the three school publications, the OAK, the Acorn, and the Upi-Dah, meet their deadlines. Working on Tuesdays and Thursdays, the girls had to divide into two shifts: the regular shift, lasting until four-thirty, and the late shift, lasting until seven o'clock.

This year's officers were Roberta Klick, president; Barbara Reeves, manager; and Marilyn Worley, secretary. Miss Lucretia Kerr, the adviser, helped the girls in setting up jobs and proof-reading copy.

PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF

Under the capable supervision of Mr. Charles Oswald, Upper Darby's photography staff worked year-round to assist the Acorn and the Oak staffs. Their pictures played an important role in producing both these outstanding publications. Assignments ran the gamut from posed portraits and formal group pictures to athletic action shots and candid classroom scenes. Whatever the job, the photography staff displayed skill, creativity, and patience.

400 voices rehearse to

Under the direction of Clyde R. Dengler, Jr., the 400-voice Upper Darby Senior High School Choral Club gave three concerts this year. The first (pictured above), a Christmas Concert held at Beverly Hills Junior High School on December 16, presented both sacred and popular Christmas music. The second, a sacred concert given on March 30, featured the Seven Last Words of Christ by Dudois. The third performance, held on May 16, was a secular program, including show tunes and patriotic numbers.

Concert choir officers Jim Draughon, Dave Moyer, Craig Hoffman, and Judy Handy discuss plans for the trip to Harrisburg.

Under the direction of Clyde R. Dengler and the leadership of Dave Moyer, president; Jim Draughon, vice-president; Craig Hoffman, treasurer; and Judy Handy, secretary, the Concert Choir was active in many community events. As well as participating in the three Choral Club concerts, the choir performed for the Rotary Club at the Belvue Stratford Hotel and appeared during the Christmas season on WFIL-TV. The highlight of the year was the trip to Harrisburg where the choir sang for the legislature and Governor Scranton.

Early in the year, the choir honored Judy Beissel and Craig Hoffman by sending them as the Upper Darby representatives to the District Chorus. After rigorous try-outs, both were accepted; and Judy was fortunate enough to also be chosen to sing in the Regional Chorus.

The Choralaires, school's all-girl singing group, specialized in four part barbershop arrangements. Besides adding their voices in the Choral Club's three yearly concerts, they also performed for the Mother's Group and in the junior Christmas Assembly. A smaller group of three girls, the Tre-ettes, sprung from the Choralaires and assisted them in giving programs. In the spring the Choralaires sang at West Chester State College, and joined the Barbershoppers from the Community Y. in presenting a program.

WORDS AND MUSIC - DWIGHT HERING

The Upper Darby High School Band had a busy year. As usual, the band played at both home and away football games; the musical organization also gave two concerts at the junior high schools during the year. Band students elected the course when they made up their rosters and attended the course three times a week. If a person had no room for band, however, he could still join the band. All band members attended two rehearsals a week. Accompanying the band at the football games were the Colorguard and the Majorettes.

Rostered three times a week, also, the orchestra was composed of interested, talented musicians. Each year, they play in the Memorial Day Assemblies. Performing ably, they also gave two concerts at Garretford Elementary School and combined their talents with the Choral Club to give a spring concert. The orchestra also performed at commencement exercises, another annual event.

Thespians

Under the able direction of Miss Frieda Reed and Miss Maizie Weil, the Thespian Troupe 1000 this year presented as their annual play for the community's children Niccolo and Nicollette. In addition to their work for this play, the members of Thespians helped in the production of the class plays, Outward Bound and The Miser. Each fall members of the Thespians offered classes in make-up and stagecraft. These classes were held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings beginning at 7:30. After completion of one of the courses or after a very good performance in an acting try-out, a student qualifies for Thespian apprenticeship. When the apprentice has earned ten points, each of which is equal to ten hours of work on any of the three productions, he may then become a thespian. Miss Reed and Miss Weil are greatly helped in their work by Charlotte Rode, president; Hope Maruchi, vice-president; Priscilla Becroft, secretary; Janet Sand, treasurer; Judy Beissel, clerk; Ben Arnoff, sergeant-at-arms; and LeeAnn Feltwell and Paula Cutler, custodians of the make-up.

MANY VARIED and unique props were used for the scenery.

On March 22 and 23, at 8:15 P.M., the Junior Class presented Moliere's French comedy, The Miser. The set, designed by members of the National Thespian Troop 1000 under the supervision of Miss Weil, depicted a realistic seventeenth-century living room that proved an effective backdrop for the quickly-moving farce. Under the direction of Miss Reed, the cast, in ornate wigs and gowns, enthusiastically portrayed their characters.

The complicated plot involved many love mix-ups, and even a robbery. Harpagon, the Miser, valuing his money more than the welfare of his children, decides to marry Maryanne, his son Cleante's sweetheart, for her beauty, and the dowry she will bring him. At the same time, he refuses to let his own daughter marry to save himself from paying her dowry. In the midst of the Miser's wedding plans, his horde of silver is discovered missing. Harpagon accuses his own son Cleante of the theft. However, just in time, the true thief confesses, and the Miser retires with his wealth while both children get married. The play ended on a comic note, as Harpagon solemnly "blew out" the house lights in order to count his money undisturbed.

The old seventeenth-century tradition of pounding loudly on the stage three times before each act was observed, and helped set the over-all mood of the well-acted play.

One of the most exciting events of the school year was the choosing of the All-School Show King and Queen. During the try-outs for the show, Mr. Doane and Mr. Keller chose eight candidates, four boys and four girls, who performed in the three class assemblies. After each assembly, the students voted for their choices. This year, the candidates were: Ben Aronoff, playing the banjo; Carol Banninger, dancing; Connie Cooper, twirling her baton; Tony DeCarolis, playing the guitar; Bonnie Heilig, playing the harp; Pete Jarjisian, singing; Bob Kubicky, playing the accordion; and Linda Westerman, singing. Presiding over the election was Lin Biviano, last year's All School Show King. The counting of the ballots was handled by the Acorn staff. On Friday, Lin crowned Bonnie Heilig and Ben Aronoff the Royal Regents of 1963. The crowning, however, was repeated for the Saturday night audience.

"Radio and Television" was the theme of the 1963 All-School Show. Under the capable direction of Mr. Robert A. Doane and Mr. William L. Keller, the show was presented on Friday and Saturday nights, February 22 and 23. The production was composed of thirty acts, which included both serious and comical musical numbers, colorful dance lines, and amusing dialogues. The emcees who spoofed commercials between acts were Jennifer Long, Greg Embick, and John McDermott. These award-deserving performances were the climax to two weeks of strenuous rehearsals.

In her own quiet way, Bonnie Heilig has gained the admiration of the entire student body. She holds the unique honor of being elected both May Queen and All-School Show Queen in her senior year. Bonnie was president of Girls' Hi-Y, Optimist "Girl of the Year," a National Merit finalist, and a member of the Concert Choir. She also served as gold class color captain in her sophomore and junior years, and played varsity hockey and lacrosse all three years at Upper Darby. Because of her outstanding ability and excellent sportsmanship, she was elected captain of the hockey team in her senior year. Bonnie will always be remembered for her sincerity, devotion, leadership, and friendliness.

The May Queen and her court, nominated by the whole student body, were elected by the senior class and representatives of the junior and sophomore executive committees. Bonnie's lovely attendants were Ann Goldman, cheerleading captain; Joanne Henderson, senior class secretary; Ginny Jackson, Most Valuable swimmer; Doris Krug, Acorn girls' sports editor; Carol Layton, three letter winner in hockey, basketball, and lacrosse; Jennifer Long, Acorn editorial assistant; Lynn Pettit, cheerleader; Marylyn Rosa, majorette captain; Marsleete Shields, varsity lacrosse player; and Marilyn Worley, Commercial Club president. The other candidates were: Judy DeMann, Pauline Fedor, Isabelle Manwiller, Karen Parsons, Stephanie Polites, Renee Robbins, Miriam Rosen, and Lynn Snyder.

The members studied their subjects in their own time, sacrificing many hours to increase their knowledge; and attended a briefing meeting every Monday afternoon. This year, the residual point system was inaugurated. If one team gave an incorrect answer, the team next in order was given an opportunity to gain a point by answering it correctly. After each team participated in three meets, the three teams scoring the highest total of points went on to the final round.

Every morning and afternoon one could see members of the Leaders' Group faithfully patrolling the halls. Other Leaders worked in either Mr. Anderson's office or the Attendance Office during study halls. The members were chosen on the basis of their grades, activities, mentality, and quality. The officers this year are Harry Chilimidos and Anita Bachman, co-presidents, and Carol Shaffer, secretary. The Executive Committee is made up of the officers and five captains: Carol Chavoosian, Betty Nescio, Nancy Norris, Don Reed, and Lynne Zurzolo.

Each year the group takes a trip to a well-known place. This year, on April 8, they took an all-day trip to New York. There they visited the Statue of Liberty, Chinatown, United Nations, and Radio City Music Hall. The trip is always the highlight of the year for the group.

Spirit and determination

Captain Jim Draughon
M.V.P. Craig Weaver

Finishing their season with a 2-6-1 log, the Royal football men did not have the record of a Championship team, but they did have the spirit of one. This spirit, not able to be numerically represented, was best demonstrated in the Chester game by their determination and fight. At the end of the third quarter, U.D. was losing 19-6, but in the last period the Royals rallied for three touchdowns to notch a 24-19 victory. The Gridders, by fighting Haverford 13-13 in the last game of the season, tied for fifth place in Suburban I competition. The responsibilities of captain were placed in the capable hands of veteran Jim Draughon, while Most Valuable Player honors were bestowed upon Craig Weaver for his outstanding rushing ability. Walter Joachim, as the most outstanding linesman, was the recipient of the Thomas A. Mentzer Award.

VARSITY COACH Miss Yvonne Gros

"Think attack," a motto engraved on every player's mind, brought success to this year's undefeated hockey team. With Captain Bonnie Heilig the only regular player returning to the forward line, the Royal's coach, Miss Yvonne Gros, doubtful about the scoring potential of this year's varsity team, found these doubts fading quickly. The attack, led by Carol Layton, the team's most valuable player, tallied twenty-seven goals against its opponents. The defense was equally responsible for the team's winning record: opponents scored only two goals against U.D. sticksters the entire season.

Each day members of the squad worked diligently to improve their skills. This constant improvement plus unyielding determination and fighting spirit were characteristic of this year's undefeated hockey squad.

RIGHT-WING Judy Cross attempts to dodge Cheltenham opponent as Karen Parsons and Linda Westerman back up play.

Improvement keynoted the activities of the Junior Varsity Hockey squad this year. At the start of the season, U.D.'s junior sticksters lacked aggressiveness and the skill to score. By constantly practicing fundamentals, however, they were able to strengthen both the team's defense and offense. This progress is evident in the J.V. record of 3-2-3. With the experience gained on the J.V. squad, these girls will be an asset to next year's varsity team.

Players

By polishing their skills, the Junior Varsity soccer squad improved team play under the guidance of their coaches, Mr. Norman Watts and Mr. Milton Weist. With a game schedule separate from that of the Varsity team, the Jay Vees booted to a season record of 7 wins and 3 losses. The team, composed of sophomore boys only played their best game against a strong and at that time undefeated Girard College team. These boys will be a definite asset to next year's Varsity squad.

U.D.'s soccer team dribbled, passed, kicked, and faked to thirteen wins, two ties, and no losses. Through their spirit and strong determination to play as a team, they copped the Suburban I, District I, and Eastern Regional titles. In gaining the Eastern Regionals, they outbooted the same team that U.D.'s 1955 Royals downed to become champions. Head coach, Mr. Albert Jackson, and his assistant, Mr. Christopher White, scheduled the games, gave individual aid, and bolstered the team's spirit. Dick Sinclair and Jim Burns shared Captain and Most Valuable Player honors. The All-Scholastic Team of Greater Philadelphia selected Jim as their goalie and awarded Dick honorable mention. This season's record keeps Upper Darby in the van of Pennsylvania scholastic soccer achievement.

U.D. Harriers ran their eleventh

Coached by Mr. John Swartz and led by co-captains Bob Geddes and Bill Carroll, the Upper Darby Harriers outran their opponents to enjoy an undefeated season. The team, which has won twenty-six of twenty-seven dual meets in the past three years, placed sixth in the District Meet this year. Geddes, Most Valuable Runner, and Carroll, Novice Cup Winner, shattered three course records while leading the Cross Country men to their second straight Suburban I title. Injuries to returning lettermen Bill Perkins and Russell Eck opened the door for first-year men Fred Hunsicker, Jim Strickland, Gene Bruskin, and Dave Henderson, who carried the brunt of the Royal attack.

Touchdowns and spirit

Coached by Mr. Ulmer and Mr. Bennet, the Junior Varsity Football team worked industriously after school in order to gain experience and to improve techniques. Compiling a team record of six wins and three losses, the boys strove to perfect their team work so that they can bolster next year's varsity squad as it presents a formidable front to all opponents.

are their goals. Cheerleading

School spirit plays an important role in the success of any team. Under the guidance of the lively cheerleading squad, U.D.'s school spirit never faltered. Besides bolstering morale at athletic contests, the squad led cheers at the Purple and Gold Songs and Cheers Contests, pep rallies, and school assemblies. The girls' squad, led by captain Ann Goldman and adviser Mr. Foderaro, was assisted by the following boys: Pete Jarjisian, Greg Embick, and Tom Davis. Throughout the year, the cheerleaders added color and excitement to athletic contests and staunchly supported the Purple and the Gold.

Mr. Park

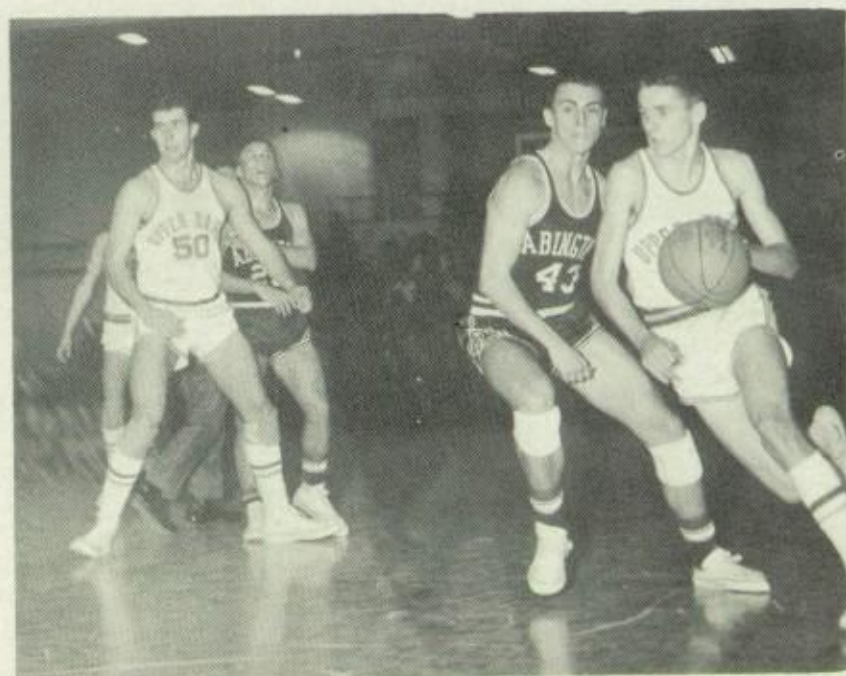

Led by coach Frank Riechle and by high scorer Scott McCoy, the Junior Varsity squad began the season by winning their first six games. After this initial spurt, the team had several defeats, but came back to log an impressive record of 10 wins and 8 losses. Coach Riechle stated that the J.V. courtmen worked hard to improve themselves and displayed excellent spirit throughout the entire season. The squad gained important experience and developed valuable techniques which will be of great assistance to those who return and form next year's Varsity squad.

Under the leadership of the Most Valuable Player Bob Lloyd and coach Del Park, the Royal quintet advanced to the District I playoffs after they defeated Woodrow Wilson and Ambler at the Palestra. Lloyd, who averaged 21.8 points per game, was second in league scoring only to Bob Coleman of Darby-Colwyn. Mike Goetz was Upper Darby's leading rebounder. Throughout the season, the boys displayed efficient ball handling and extremely accurate foul shooting which aided them in winning fifteen straight games before losing to Plymouth-Whitemarsh at the Palestra. According to coach Park, teamwork was the key word to the Royal's success this year. He said that the boys placed victory above any personal glory and because of this the hoopsters were a very successful working "unit." In the eyes of coach Park, this is the finest team in the history of Upper Darby Senior High School!

Basketbelles . . .

Following a record of one defeat in ten years, Upper Darby's Basketbelles dribbled to another highly successful season. Their outstanding record was marred only by a 43-45 loss to Abington. Coached by Miss Betty D. Weston, the girls adjusted very well to the innovation of the roving player, even though Miss Weston had anticipated difficulty, especially for returning lettermen. Teamwork and excellent sportsmanship were displayed throughout the season. Brenda Bedser, Most Valuable Player, and Lois Reynolds, captain and high scorer, led the team to an average of 45 points a game. The Royalties notched a total of 317 points as compared with the 184 points tallied by all their opponents.

The squad, under Miss Betty Weston, practiced daily with the Varsity for they too had to learn the new roving player rules. It was obvious by their great improvement during the season that the girls had worked hard and long to master the fundamentals of the game. Their victory over Lower Merion proved to be the most exciting contest of the entire season with Sandy Overton scoring the winning goal with ten seconds remaining.

At the end of the season, the Junior Varsity matmen had a record of six wins, two losses, and one tie. The team, captained each week by a different boy, often sent squad members to the Varsity team. Head coach Mr. Peter Bernardino and assistant coaches Mr. Arthur McCall and Mr. Fred Loeb commended the squad on their fine performances and look forward to working with the same boys next year. Both the coaches and the team felt that the Springfield meet, which resulted in a 22-22 tie, was the most exciting contest of the season.

They were finally rewarded, however, for their unrelenting determination by winning their final four meets. Ginny Jackson, captain for two years was elected Most Valuable Swimmer for the third straight season. As the team's leading scorer, Ginny placed first in every meet. The tankgals garnered fourth place in the P.I.A.A. District I swimming Championships. In this competition the medley and freestyle relay teams placed fourth. Captain Jackson captured first in the one hundred yard freestyle in a record time of 59.4 seconds, and also took second place in the fifty yard freestyle event. Senior lettermen Ginny Jackson, Barbara Leary, Renee Robbins, and Libby Stahler will be missed by next year's squad which will be led by returning letterwinners Lynn Davidson, Mary Ann Fitzpatrick, Sue Hamilton, Gail Hovis, and Sue Redman.

Upper Darby's J.V. mermaids, coached by Miss Barbara Mirth and Miss Eva Niederdrenk, swam to an impressive record of 7 wins and 3 losses. The season began with dry land practice in the corrective gym, where the girls performed rigorous exercises to be better prepared for swimming in the pool. Once in the water, the tankgals swam three days a week to gain added endurance and increased speed. The girls also perfected such techniques as starts and turns. The leading scorers were Randy Norbom, Pam Bradley, Sandy Kelso, and Corky Foley, all of whom will return to strengthen next year's team.

FINMEN PUSH OFF in backstroke event.

Coached by Mr. Mario Todaro and Mr. William Brobst and captained by Larry Matlack and Jay Wolkov, the boys' swimming team logged a record of three wins and seven losses. John Lawrence, a junior, was elected Most Valuable Swimmer and also next year's captain by his fellow finmen. The accomplishments which enabled him to obtain this honor included: third place in the regional meet and second place in the 200 yard freestyle in the State Championships. John also established new school records in the 100 yard and 200 yard freestyle events, swimming the events in 53.7 seconds and one minute 57.2 seconds respectively. The 200 yard medley relay team consisting of John Lawrence, Jay Wolkov, Rick Berman, and Frank Powell, who swam the backstroke, breaststroke, butterfly, and freestyle respectively, also set a school record of one minute 50 seconds. John Lawrence and Bobby Jackson, a freshman from the Drexel Hill Junior High who was second high scorer, are bright hopes for next year's squad.

The Diamondmen opened their season with a 3-2 victory over Bartram, defending Philadelphia champs. Pitcher Fred Forte drove in the winning run in the tenth inning. On April 10 the big nine opened their league games by defeating Abington 3-0. Superior pitching and clutch-hitting accounted for these victories. Frank De Feo, Jim Draughon, Phil Furlano, Ed Guyer, Byrl Himmelberger, and Noel Wray, returning lettermen, were led by captain Jim Burns. Mr. Carson Thompson and Mr. Lewis Soscia piloted the Defending Suburban I Champs.

The success of any varsity team depends on the experience and skill of the players. The function of the Junior Varsity is to build fundamentals. The Junior Varsity baseball team did this by giving sophomore boys the opportunity to play in game situations and polish their skills. With the help of coach Fred Ulmer, the Junior Varsity completed a fourteen game schedule.

build powerful varsities . . . and Crossettes

The JV squad this year was composed mostly of sophomores who had no previous playing experience. Since there were only a few weeks of practice before league practice began, Miss Mirth had to teach the girls the basic fundamentals in hopes that they would develop their potentialities during the season. Although they lost their first game, persistence and diligent practice enabled the squad to improve greatly throughout the season.

Although lacrosse was initiated as a varsity sport in Upper Darby only four years ago, this year's team presented a threat to every team in the league. With seven returning varsity players, the Crossettes began the season with a strong nucleus of players. The squad, coached by Miss Vonnie Gros and paced by captain Brenda Bedser, practiced with great enthusiasm everyday after school and greatly improved their skills by attending lacrosse camp at Plymouth-Whitemarsh during Spring Vacation. Opening their season with no scrimmages behind them, the Royalettes defeated their first opponent, Marple Newtown, 12-2.

Upper Darby's Girls' Tennis team, coached by Miss Betty Dean Weston and her assistant, Miss Gay Lofgren, had a successful season this year. Returning Varsity letter winners, Carol Dillman, Wendy Duguid, Andy Hart, and Rett Van Hee, along with last years' Junior Varsity players Janet Lamon, Claudia Kaczur, Karen Parsons, Lois Thomas, LeeAnn Feltwell, and Marcia Bloom, with sophomore Annabelle Richardson, composed the backbone of the squad. Senior Managers Sue Politica, Karen Race, and Ann Cloak kept score at the matches, cared for the equipment, and served refreshments to visiting teams. Leading the netgals was Wendy Duguid, the elected captain, playing first singles. The actual positions of girls on the varsity squad was not permanent, as they could challenge a player three positions above them to a match. The winner of three games would then be awarded the higher position. There was no limit to the number of challenges a girl could make or receive.

Mr. Ralph McConnell and Mr. Albert Jackson, coaching Upper Darby's netmen, installed the usual "ladder system" for determining positions on the squad. The boys challenged each other during the entire season and the winner of each challenge assumed the higher team position. Ken Regester, Richard Liss, Walter Joachim, Tom Davis, William Zurzolo, Donald Kamens, Tom Burns, Scott Schrager, and Richard Langner, the returning lettermen, provided the needed experience and leadership for the underclassmen. New members were Bernard Schmitt, John Hunter, and Tom Westcott. The team practiced diligently for a successful season.

In order that the advantages derived from participation in athletic contests could be more widely distributed among Upper Darby's students, an intramural program was established. This year over 200 students took part in this program, which was organized and supervised by Mr. Herbert Herzog, Director of Athletics. Girls' and boys' tennis, girls' volleyball, and boys' basketball were offered. The members of the winning team in each sport were awarded class numerals. These numerals, however, may only be issued once to any student during his years at Upper Darby.

Mr. Lewis Stamus

Mr. Lewis Stamus, adviser to the class of 1965, is experiencing his first year as a class adviser. Along with Miss Helen Mowry, he planned the Sophomores' Wednesday morning assemblies, and gave his time to counsel and guide the bewildered Sophomores.

In addition to his many advisory duties, Mr. Stamus teaches history. This year he also completed a twenty-two year career of coaching Upper Darby's football team.

According to Mr. Stamus there is "outstanding potential in the class of 1965."

Early in the year, all the sophomore homerooms elected one person to represent them in the Sophomore Executive Committee, which met every Monday morning in the cafeteria under the supervision of the class advisers and officers. President Rhonda Streitfield was the first girl to hold this office in Upper Darby's history. Assisting Ronnie were: John girl president in Upper Darby's history.

Miss Helen Mowry

As their adviser, Miss Helen Mowry serves the class of 1965 with the same diligence she applies to her many other duties. With Mr. Stamus, she oversaw all class social functions, planned assemblies, and supervised executive committee meetings. Miss Mowry is also in charge of the Girls' Hi-Y, teaches English and public speaking classes, and trains commencement speakers.

Outside of school, Miss Mowry enjoys traveling. She has toured all over the United States and many parts of Europe.

With one year as class adviser already completed, Miss Mowry is convinced that the class of 1965 contains great potentialities for leadership which will develop fully within the next two years.

Picconi, vice-president; Sarah Jane Bryant, secretary; and Tom Finarelli, treasurer.

The executive committee began the year by organizing the magazine campaign which added $3300 to the class treasury. In October they planned a party to help the members of the class to get better acquainted. Late in the year, they honored the May Queen and her court at their Sophomore Dance.

Mr. Fred C. Loeb

Mr. Fred C. Loeb, always an active member of the Faculty, is the adviser to the class of 1964. Serving as the corrective gym teacher and as the assistant coach of the wrestling team also takes up much of his time.

This year Mr. Loeb consulted with juniors and their parents about the results of the Drexel tests. He also planned assembly programs, supervised executive committee meetings, and helped organize class functions. Mr. Loeb, who enjoys working with young people, is always glad to discuss any of their problems with them.

CLASS OFFICERS Sandy Warren, Marilyn Ursamarso, Fred Hunsiker, Joe Speirs.

Under the leadership of class advisers Miss Frances Gamble and Mr. Fred Loeb, and class president Joseph Spiers, the junior executive committee met in room 214 every Monday morning. With the assistance of Sandy Warren, vice-president; Marilyn Ursomarso, secretary; and Fred Hunsiker, treasurer, the executive committee conducted all the business of the class. They planned the junior dance, their second year on the "hill."

Miss Frances Gamble

Miss Frances Gamble has finished her second year as the capable adviser of the class of 1964. Her responsibilities include supervising the executive committee meetings, planning junior assemblies, and chaperoning class social activities. Miss Gamble willingly gives advice about roster planning, supplies information about colleges and universities, and interprets Drexel test results.

Holding the position as Upper Darby's only reading teacher, she teaches a course in reading improvement and development. Miss Gamble, known among the faculty for her wit, also teaches reading at Drexel Institute of Technology. Being enthusiastic about music and drama, she regularly attends concerts and theatrical performances.

THE JUNIOR DANCE, S. S. Royal, was presented in October.

"S.S. Royal" and the Junior-Senior Reception, and supervised the ticket sales for the junior play, The Miser, presented in March. The executive committeemen, one representing each homeroom, kept the rest of the junior class informed about their work, publicize class activities, distributed information from the guidance department, and collected class dues.

Miss Ruth Bassett

Miss Ruth M. Bassett, adviser to the class of 1963, is also the head librarian and supervisor of the Library Club. With Mr. Reichle, she planned our assemblies and attended executive committee meetings, giving her advice and opinions when needed. She counseled all the members of the class, and never missed any class dances, parties, or plays. Her final duties as adviser were to arrange for cap and gown fittings and to plan our commencement exercises.

Even with this busy schedule, Miss Bassett finds time to pursue her interests in music and traveling and has visited a large part of the United States.

Ruth Bassett

Miss Bassett and Mr. Reichle,

We, the class of 1963, are very grateful to you for all the advice and understanding you have given us throughout our three years "on the Hill." All your work during our magazine campaign, your patience while preparing for class functions, and your helpful guidance in planning our rosters will never be forgotten. In these three years we have grown not only physically, but also mentally and emotionally through your sincere concern.

The Class of 1963

MISS BASSETT records those who have paid their class dues.

Mr. Frank Reichle

Upon Mr. Arthur Pursell's death at the end of our sophomore year, Mr. Frank C. Reichle, assistant basketball coach, became our class adviser. He is pictured above making announcements in assembly. His responsibilities as adviser were all shared with Miss Bassett. Besides planning assemblies, supervising executive committee meetings, and chaperoning class dances, Mr. Reichle helped keep the records of the class budget and planned our commencement exercises. He also arranged for cap and gown fittings and gave Drexel test interpretations.

Mr. Reichle teaches United States history to college preparatory and general students. His main out of school activity is traveling. He has visited Europe, South America, Bermuda, Canada, and the western United States. Mr. Reichle believes that all places in the world are worth seeing.

Mr. Frank Reichle

Remembering . . .

Mr. Arthur Pursell

Mr. Arthur Benjamin Pursell, a member of the social studies department from September 1951 until June 1961, died on Commencement Day, June 15, 1961. During our sophomore year, Mr. Pursell served as our class adviser. Despite his illness, which incapacitated him for a large part of the year, he guided the class of 1963 through a successful magazine campaign and several class social functions. He also scheduled assembly programs and counseled class members and their parents.

During most of his teaching career, Mr. Pursell served as a football and track coach. He compiled a record of football victories which few coaches have ever equalled. He was also a superior teacher. Each school in which he taught has rated him as one of the best teachers in the school. We, the class of 1963, were honored to have him as our Sophomore Adviser, and it is with the greatest reverence that we have given him a place in our yearbook.

LINDA PITTINOS, pictured below, has acted as accompanist for every class assembly since our sophomore year. She has received little recognition for her work; but we, the class of 1963, sincerely appreciate her service.

Senior Executive Committee

Under the guidance of Mr. Frank Reichle and Miss Ruth Bassett, advisers, the Senior Executive Committee met every Monday morning at eight o'clock in room 14. In addition to the five class officers pictured on the previous page, the committee was composed of one member from each senior homeroom. Committee members kept their homerooms informed about coming school events and reported to them the topics discussed at the meeting. They collected class dues, sold Senior Play tickets, and saw that pamphlets and other materials from the guidance department and the class advisers were distributed. Executive committeemen also assisted homeroom teachers in getting nomination for the May Queen, the senior service awards, and the American Legion awards. They made the arrangements for the Senior Dance, the Senior Party, and the Senior Final, and even sold pretzels to raise money for the Post-prom Party after the Final.
